

XM radio is a service provided to millions of listeners at OUR request and cost. If we are willing to subscribe and pay for this service, what gives the government the right to restrict its service. Lets them concentrate thier time and efforts to helping our TROOPS, and less time trying to fatten thier pockets.